SUBJECT INDEX

ABATEMENT OF WRIT PROCEEDING

Abatement—Meaning of abatement of proceedings arising out of and in connection with writ petitions—Pending writ petitions and appeals from judgments in writ petitions abated—Judgments pronounced by the High Court Division from which no appeals preferred and judgments by the Appellate Division before the proclamation of Martial Law have not abated and will remain effective and enforceable.

— 10(a)

APPEALS

Appeals—Ordinarily the rights of the litigants in an appeal are determined under the law in force at the date of the suit and in this sense appeals are continuations of the suits—Appeals against judgment in Writ jurisdiction stand on a different footing than the class of appeals provided by statutes—Such appeals cannot be termed as vested right.
