SUBJECT INDEX

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW.

Delegated Legislation—An intention which is not available in the four corners of the parent legislation and which is not manifest even in the service Regulations cannot be introduced by the Government through its rule making power by way of delegated legislation which would be in excess of the delegated authority—Statutory powers cannot be assigned without statutory authority—Delegated authority must be exercised in accordance with the power creating it and in the spirit of the enabling statute.

— 1(c)

Delegation of power—Whenever there is a question of delegation of power it must be done in specific and categorical terms—It is not permissible to read such power by necessary implication when rights of others are involved—There being no delegation of power to the Vice-President the impugned order passed with his approval can not be sustained.

— 11(b)

Question of promotion—See Service matter.

ADVERSE POSSESSION.

—See Limitation Act, Arts. 142 & 144.

APPEAL AGAINST ACQUITTAL.

Appeal against acquittal—The appellate Court will not interfere unless the finding of the trial Court is manifestly wrong or mistake is obvious and illegal.

— 121(b)
